5. Proposals involving voting by preference shareholders: none

III. Notes on Voting at the EGM

1. Shareholders of the Company exercising their voting rights through the online voting system of the Shanghai Stock Exchange for general meetings can either log on to the trading system voting platform (through the trading terminal of the designated trading securities company) or log on to the Internet voting platform (website: vote.sseinfo.com) to cast their votes. For the first time to log on to the Internet voting platform to vote, investors need to complete the shareholder identification. Please see the instructions on the Internet voting platform website for specific operations.

2. The number of voting rights exercisable by a Shareholder holding multiple shareholder accounts is the sum of the number of ordinary shares of the same class and preference shares of the same variety held in all shareholder accounts in his or her name.

Shareholders holding multiple shareholder accounts who participate in the online voting at the General Meeting through the Exchange's online voting system may participate through any of their shareholder accounts. After voting, all the ordinary shares of the same class and preference shares of the same class under their respective shareholder accounts are deemed to have been voted on with the same opinion.

Where Shareholders holding multiple shareholder accounts vote repeatedly through multiple shareholder accounts, the results of the first vote for the same class of ordinary shares and the same variety of preference shares under all of their shareholder accounts shall prevail over the results of the first vote for each class and variety of shares respectively.

3. If the same voting right is repeatedly voted through on-site, the online voting system of the Shanghai Stock Exchange for general meetings or other means, the result of the first vote shall prevail.

4. Shareholders will vote on all proposals before they can be submitted.
